We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Bettinger & Leech Financial Corp. as of December 31, 2006 and the related statements of income, retained earnings and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We have conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards accepted in United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2006 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Respectfully submitted,

Gentlemen:

We have examined the financial statements of Bettinger & Leech Financial Corp. for the year ended December 31, 2006 and issued our report thereon dated January 2006. In accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission regulations, we found no material inadequacies in the firm's accounting systems, internal accounting control and procedures for safeguarding securities. We have also found that the Corporation was up to date with funding their memberships in NASD, MSRB, and SIPC, and they were meeting the requirements of those memberships. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary in these circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,
